You've decided to travel. Freedom has never meant more to you. You've planned for this day, and now it's here.

At Georgie Boy, we've been in the recreational vehicle business since 1968. Our goal is to design and build motorhomes that can keep up with the explorer in you. This means working hard to ensure that every detail of your new Georgie Boy is right – before you turn the key. Of course, our commitment to quality also means a few late-night trips to the coffee maker.

Georgie Boy motorhomes are designed to ensure that customer satisfaction is the highest priority. It is not intended that all seating positions equipped with seat belts be occupied. However, for your safety and the proper operation of your vehicle, we recommend that the maximum number of passengers allowed while the vehicle is being driven be limited to the number allowed by the GVWR. The maximum nominal. Georgie Boy motorhomes are designed to ensure that the customer also bears the responsibility to select the proper combination of passengers, cargo, and optional equipment to ensure safe operation of the vehicle. In selecting which seat to occupy, be aware that passengers occupying seats located further back in the vehicle may not be as visible to the driver or as easily secured by seat belts. For safety and product performance, do not exceed the GVWR. Additional loads, such as passengers, cargo, optional equipment, and accessories, can significantly impact the handling and performance of your vehicle. It is important to consider the weight capabilities of your vehicle to ensure safe operation. The maximum number of occupants allowed when the vehicle is being driven shall not exceed the number of passengers allowed by the GVWR. It is possible that this number may be less than the number of seating positions equipped with seat belts.
