camping, we found that the next natural step up was into an American Star."

"American Star towables were created for folks just like us who wanted something a little more elaborate in an RV than the beginner, yet still within our price range. American Star fits the bill! Both travel trailers and fifth wheels come in a wide variety of sizes, floor plans and color combinations. The standard features are much more abundant than on an entry level coach, yet the price remains affordable."

"With all the options American Star offers, we could create our own RV to fit our personal needs and that is very important to any buyer. No two families have the same taste or requirements. Newmar designers and engineers are experienced campers themselves and know what's needed and what's not in a recreational vehicle in this price range."

"So, if you want to get off to 'A Great Start' like we did, visit your nearest American Star Dealer today. He'll eliminate all the guesswork of choosing your next step up in a new RV!"
