It's easy to see Sunflyer is the product of an intense commitment to quality and human engineered convenience. But what you don't see is the most remarkable feature of all.

Affordability.

It's not surprising that Sunflyer is consistently the choice of RVer's who want to step up—but know there's no need to sacrifice unnecessary purchase dollars.

Sure, you can spend more. But it's hard to imagine a richer, more livable, more luxurious interior.

In fact, you'll find just about everything in Sunflyer. Except wasted space.

SUNDANCER 26

Sundancer is purely and simply a driving machine. A machine offering the comfort and convenience of a quality motor home — but not at the expense of performance and roadability.

Itasca has engineered a perfect marriage of coachwork and chassis. And the result is remarkable road handling characteristics under nearly every conceivable condition.

Sundancer is strong and sure-footed in the outback. Smooth and stable on an interstate. And surprisingly nimble and responsive in city traffic.

Best of all, Sundancer is designed to be affordable. It's equipped to live effortlessly. And it's ready to take you anywhere. Whenever adventure calls.
